He showed drawings of the interior improvements and provided the latest figures for these plans. He explained that they have done their best to limit the expense to City Hall to performing basic improvements, which include a new roof, replacing some windows, replacing carpet and some chairs, painting, moving very few walls to accommodate the departmental changes when the building division vacates their portion of the first floor, etc.

2. After very few comments from Council a motion to adjourn was approved by unanimous consent.
